

LEE JACKSON

Highlights:

As a Maritime Veteran with over 30 years of experience in the Industry and holder of an Any Gross Tonnage License from the United States Coast Guard. His achievements include being the 3rd African American River Pilot Commissioned in the State of Louisiana and 7th in the Nation, an appointment by the Governor of Louisiana to review and oversee the regulatory compliance of River Pilots along the Mississippi River. Mr. Jackson is one of the local investors bringing the WTC (World Trade Center) Building back to commerce with the Four Seasons Hotel & Private Residence. Mr. Jackson is the founder/owner of Jackson Offshore which is a premier Offshore Marine Transportation company that provides marine services via vessels to Major Oil/Gas companies that Drill and Explore in the Deep-water Gulf of Mexico. Finally, and his most proudest highlight is Mr. Jackson is happily married to Margaret Jackson for 25 (twenty-Five) years, and they have 1 (one) daughter Marlee.

Current Employment

New Orleans – Baton Rouge Steamship Pilots Association

- State River Pilot

Jackson Offshore Operators LLC

- Chairman/President and CEO

Education:

Kellogg's Advanced Management Program at Northwestern University (Chicago, IL)

- Advanced Business Management Curriculum

New York Maritime (New York, NY)

- Maritime Science

Maritime Institute of Technology (Baltimore, MD)

- Advanced Ship-handling

License:

Unlimited First-Class Pilot

- Mississippi River 88.0 AHP to 234.0 AHP
- 1600 Ton Master (Near Coastal)

Boards/Commissions:

- Louisiana River Pilot Review/Oversight Board
- New Orleans Board of Examiners for Mississippi River (Board Member)
- New Orleans Business Council Board Member (Executive Board/Member)
- Southern Regional Minority Development Council (Board Member)
- National Ocean Industry Association (Executive Board/Member)
- Offshore Marine Service Association (Board Member)
- New Orleans Black Chamber of Commerce (Member)
- American Heart Association Executive Committee