

RESEARCH AND GRANTS EXPERT

Dr. Cheryl E. Hall
Southeastern Louisiana University
Director, Office of Sponsored Research and Programs

Cheryl E. Hall is the Director of Sponsored Research and Programs at Southeastern Louisiana University with over twenty (20) years of combined administrative and managerial experience in the cradle to crave contracts and grants management process. Her responsibilities include management of the sponsored research administration team in support of all preaward and postaward administrative functions as well as oversight responsibility for all subcontracts, MOUs and other agreements let by the university through the Office of Sponsored Research.

Dr. Hall is a former United States Department of Defense civilian employee, and a graduate of the United States Army Materiel Command Intern Program in St. Louis Missouri, in the field of Contracts and Acquisitions. She holds the B.S., Masters and Juris Doctor degrees. She has held memberships with the National Contract Management Association, the Society of Research Administrators, National Council of University Administrators and the Louisiana State Bar Association. She is a certified level II Contract Specialist, a Lifetime Certified Federal Contracts Manager and a licensed attorney.